Proxy Appointment

1. A shareholder of the Company who is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him/her. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company. Any corporation that is a shareholder of the Company may appoint a person as its representative to attend the meeting and vote on its behalf, in the same manner as that in which it could appoint a proxy. If you do not name a person as your proxy or your named proxy does not attend the meeting, the Chairman will be appointed your proxy and may only vote in accordance with your express direction.
2. If you appoint a proxy you must either direct the proxy how to vote by ticking the “For”, “Against” or “Abstain” box in respect of each resolution OR by ticking the “Proxy Discretion” box in respect of each resolution. If you do not tick a box your proxy may vote as they choose. If you mark more than one box on an item, your vote will be invalid on that item.
3. If you tick the ‘Proxy Discretion’ box for a particular resolution, you are directing your proxy to decide how to vote on that resolution on your behalf. If you tick the ‘Abstain’ box for a particular resolution, you are directing your proxy not to vote on that resolution. If a proxy does not vote on your behalf on a resolution, your votes will not be counted when calculating the majority of that resolution.
4. The Chairman of the meeting or any Director is willing to act as proxy for any shareholder who appoints him/her for that purpose. If you tick the “Proxy Discretion” box, you acknowledge that they may exercise your proxy even if they have an interest in the outcome of that resolution (subject to the NZX listing rules). The Chairman and Directors intend to vote all discretionary proxies in favour of resolutions 1 to 4.
