GeoOp extends senior leadership team

GeoOp Limited (Geo) announces today the appointment of Jude Manuel in the role of Chief Operations Officer.

The role is focused on operational effectiveness and is a further step towards scaling Geo to become the workforce productivity platform of choice.

Jude has an extensive background in executive general management roles for businesses across Australasia, including online, customer centric businesses from start-up through to established high performing companies. Jude has extensive experience across all facets of operations and business development.

Anna Cicognani, CEO of Geo, said "Jude is a proven leader and brings a track record in driving business transformation. I am delighted that such a high calibre individual is joining the team."

Jude will be initially based in Australia, but will be moving to Auckland as soon as practicable.
