GeoOp triumphs at the AUT Excellence in Business Support Awards

GEO is pleased to announce it has been recognised at the 2015 AUT Excellence in Business Support Awards, winning the Cloud Platform: Technology category for businesses under $5 million in turnover.

Anna Cicognani, CEO of GEO said: "Winning this award demonstrates the proven capabilities and value of GEO's software. It was a strong field and so we're thrilled to have GEO recognised for the significant traction we're making in market. Our proven workforce management software continues to generate measurable results, delivering significant benefits for clients."

The AUT Excellence in Business Support Awards recognise organisations and individuals that make a significant contribution to growing businesses. The winner was chosen based on leadership and planning, customer and market focus provision of business support, and evaluation and improvement with a focus on results.
